

LINEAGE LETTER

To Our Children — and the Children of Their Children

This letter is not instruction.

It is remembrance.

Beloved,

If you are reading this, it means you exist — and that alone is already a miracle.

You come from a union built deliberately, patiently, and with devotion. You come from love chosen every day, not by chance but by commitment.

Before you were born, we made a vow: that family would come before ambition, truth before comfort, God before ego, and love before fear.

This letter exists so you remember where you come from.

OUR WHY

We did not build our life to dominate the world.

We built it to elevate it.

We believed that the future of humanity depends not on power alone, but on: - strong families - honest relationships - disciplined lives - spiritual grounding - long-term thinking

We chose to live as an example, knowing that example is the most powerful form of leadership.

WHAT WE STOOD FOR

We stood for: - Truth, always - Devotion to God - Family unity - Discipline and excellence - Simplicity over excess - Responsibility over entitlement - Love expressed through action

These were not words to us. They were how we lived.

WHAT WE ASK OF YOU

You are not required to copy our life.

You are required to live with integrity.

Build your own path, but do not abandon the principles that make life worthy.

Choose partners who honor truth. Protect your nervous system. Care for your body. Sharpen your mind. Serve something greater than yourself.

And above all — protect your family.

ABOUT POWER & WEALTH

If you inherit wealth, influence, or responsibility, understand this:

None of it belongs to you alone.

It is stewardship.

Use it to: - create stability - empower others - think long-term - protect what is sacred

Never trade truth for status. Never trade family for applause.

WHEN YOU ARE LOST

There will be moments when the world feels confusing or heavy.

When that happens: - return to silence - return to prayer - return to nature - return to your family

Stillness will remind you who you are.

OUR BLESSING

You are not here by accident.

You are part of a lineage built with intention.

We trust you.

May you live with courage. May you love deeply. May you remember God. May you leave the world better than you found it.

FINAL WORD

If you remember only one thing, remember this:

Live in a way that you would be proud to pass your life forward.

That is how civilizations endure.

With love, faith, and devotion,

Those who came before you

This letter is to be read at moments of transition: adulthood, partnership, parenthood, and stewardship.

Sealed in love and remembrance.
